Mâali Zaghdoudi (Carthage)

On the Logarithmic Stabilization of Abstract Distributed Systems

Abstract. The presentation addresses the logarithmic stabilization of abstract distributed systems. We start by some sufficient conditions on the energy function that lead to logarithmic estimates. We look at some examples of bilinear systems in finite-dimension, then we extend our idea to bilinear systems in infinite dimensions.